BIOGRAPHY

Mr. David R. Graham
Program/Cost Analyst
NASA HQ

Biography:

Before coming to NASA in April 03, David R. Graham worked at the Aerospace Corporation for two years supporting the Intelligence Community Cost Analysis Improvement Group (IC CAIG). For 23 years prior to that, David worked for the Air Force, beginning at the Space & Missile Systems Center (SMC), Los Angeles AFB, CA., and moving from Los Angeles to Washington DC and back two times before finally settling at NASA Headquarters Cost Analysis Division. He has held a variety of cost analysis positions throughout his career. Most recently, he is helping to pull together Continuous Cost-Risk Management for improving cost management at NASA.
